Subject NARRATIVE

Related Date/Time AUG-28-2010 (SAT.) 0523

On 8/28/10 at 0105 I was dispatched to a domestic dispute at 3941 NE Surber Dr. I contacted Shanahan, Kimberley. She told me that her and her husband of 24 years named Shanahan, Patrick was having marital issues. Their son 1(l) was also at the residence. When I arrived I noticed Patrick sitting on the sidewalk in front of the house with another officer. Patrick had a black eye and a bloody nose. When I came up to the residence I noticed a pile of clothing in the driveway. I contacted Shanahan, Kimberley who appeared to be intoxicated. There was a strong odor of alcohol emitting from Kimberley. She had bloodshot eyes and incoherent speech. I asked Kimberley if she was drinking or had any drinks and she told me no.

This is my interview with Kimberley. I asked her what had happened tonight. Kimberley told me nine months ago she and Patrick were having financial issues about their daughter being 2(b)

. I again tried to ask her what had happened tonight. She again repeated about their financial issues. I asked her what happened immediate prior to our arrival. Kimberley talked about events that happened six months ago with her son. For about five minutes I kept what happened tonight and she kept referring to the past. I finally asked her if she was assaulted tonight and she told me she was. I did not notice any visible marks on her. I asked her how she was assaulted. She said Patrick struck her several times in her stomach. Kimberley finally told me her and Patrick were arguing over a suitcase that he was placing into the truck of his vehicle. Kimberley was attempting to remove the suitcase out of the vehicle when she said Patrick had struck her three or four times. Though she stated she was struck in the stomach she demonstrated she was struck on her face.

Patrick's version is he and Kimberley were arguing over their daughter and placing her back into high school for her senior year. Kimberley started throwing Patrick's clothing outside in front of their home. Patrick started packing the clothing in front of the residence into his car. She entered the house and went to the back deck and tried to take a propane tank from the barbecue grill. Unsuccessful in removing the tank she grabbed a couple of paper towels and used a lighter to light the paper towels. Patrick stated she also tried to light his clothes on fire and entered the residence and returned outside. Kimberley then approached Patrick. She started swinging her arms in a paddling motion toward Patrick striking him in the face multiple times. Patrick stood in place protecting his face and not retaliating at Kimberley. Kimberley finally stopped and Patrick waited outside while Kimberley called police.

Their son 1(1) stated he heard his parents arguing. He saw Kimberley throwing Patrick's clothing in front of their home. 1(1) also saw his mother going into the back deck attempting to remove the propane tank. When Kimberley could not take the propane tank off the barbecue grill she grabbed several paper towels and a lighter and started walking outside.

1(1) tried to stop Kimberley but was unsuccessful, she walked right past 1(1). 1(1) did not see any assault occur due to the fact he remained inside the residence.

I determined Kimberley was the primary aggressor for the following reasons; Kimberley had blood stains on her right rear forearm indicating her arms were swinging in a circular motion towards Patrick. I asked Kimberley if she at any point tried to light Patrick's clothing on fire and she told me no. Kimberley also told me she did not touch the barbecue or propane tank at any time. She had no injuries and no marks consistent with her version of being assaulted. Based on this I arrested Kimberly for DV Assault. I have statements from the victim and the witness submitted with the report. I have photographs that were submitted to the SPD photo lab. I transported Kimberley to the North precinct and the arrest was screened by Sergeant Pendergrass. Kimberley was booked into KCJ.

I hereby declare (certify) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that this report is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief (RCW 9A.72.085)

ON 08-28-2010 at 0045hrs I was at home and I was lying in BED, My Wife of 24 years Kim was trying to provoke into an argument and I would not engage in a response. My Wife pulled the blankets off of me and hit me in the head and body several times causing me too see stars. I left the bedroom and went into the kitchen My Wife was upset that I was not responding to her so she went into my closet and started to take my clothes and threw them outside. I saw my wife trying to remove the propane tank from the BBQ. I called my son Will who was down stairs to come and observe. My Wife was not able to take the propane tank off. After this she grabbed paper towels and wadded them up. My wife tried to light the paper towels on fire I grabbed them from her and threw them on the ground My Wife then tried to light my shirt on fire with the lighter. I pulled the lighter away from my shirt and started to load my clothing into the car. As I was doing this my wife went out to the car and hit me several times in the face with a closed fist. My wife swung at me 10 to 20 times. After the first three punches I defended myself by blocking her punches with my hand. My wife went inside and called the police. My wife had been drinking throughout the evening.

On 8-28-2010 at approximately 0045 I was in my bedroom when I heard my parents in a loud verbal argument. I tried to avoid the argument by watching a movie but my father Patrick came into my room and stated, "Come up stair and see what you started." I followed him up stairs and I observed my mother Kimberly walking in and out of the front door carrying my father's belongings outside throwing them to the ground. I heard my mother say "this is to make sure your father takes this seriously." As my mother said this I observed my mother attempt to take the propane tank off the BBQ. She was unable to remove the propane tank so she gathered several paper towels and a lighter. As she walked outside to his pile of clothing I held onto both her shoulders and told her she was taking this too far. I had her walk back inside the house and sit down, telling her to calm down and deal with it tomorrow. During this incident I didn't see them hitting or pushing each other. After my Mother sat down I stood by and waited for the Police to respond.
